3] アメリカからの留学生の Mark とクラスメイトの Naoki は駅で会話をしています。2人の会話文を読んで、次の各問いに答えなさい。

Mark : Since I came to Japan for the first time, I've been thinking... Why are they standing ^{*1}evenly-spaced and making two lines?

Naoki : Do you see these signs? ① (the / show / open / where / they / doors).

Mark : Oh, I see. But do they stop just right there?

Naoki : Yes, most of them do.

Mark : Oh, that's amazing! Why do they stand in two lines?

Naoki : In Japan, we wait by the doors until people get off. We have manners. The people who get on the train should wait there. They wait for the people to get off the train on both sides. We get on the train as soon as the last person gets off. So, the train can leave on time.

Mark : I see! So trains in Japan are ^{*2}punctual.

Naoki : Oh, here comes our train. Let's go. All the seats are full. Let's stand by the door.

Mark : The view from the train is also different from my country. (1), I can see lots of clothes outside houses. What are they?

Naoki : We put clothes outside houses to dry.

Mark : Really? We don't do it.

Naoki : Where do you put the clothes in your country?

Mark : In America, we have a laundry room in the ^{*3}basement. (あ)

Naoki : That sounds very interesting. Each country has its own custom.

Mark : By the way, how many stops are there to Kyoto Station?

Naoki : Now we are stopping at Yamashina Station. So it is the next. Are you ready?

Mark : Yes, I am.

(At Kyoto Station)

Naoki : We have arrived at Kyoto Station! Let's get off the train, but we don't have to rush.

Mark : Wow! This is my first time to visit Kyoto. I was looking forward to ②(come) here. Where are you going to take me?

Naoki : How (A) going to Arashiyama today? Arashiyama is an area in the western part of Kyoto. There are a lot of famous sightseeing spots. For example, Togetsu-kyo Bridge, ^{*4}The Bamboo Forest, The Monkey Park and so on.

Mark : That sounds nice! Are they around here?

Naoki : No, they aren't. We have to change trains. ③(20 / get / takes / there / about / it / minutes / to).

Mark : Really? I'm thirsty. I want something ④(to) drink. Let's go to a cafe before that!

Naoki : We don't have enough time (2) most of the shops in Arashiyama are ⑤(close) at 5 p.m. But ⑥(we don't have to go into a cafe). You see many vending machines.

Mark : Oh! I didn't notice ⑦(them) until you said that. (3) a safe country Japan is! In my country, they are put only inside. It is convenient to buy drinks everywhere! I will buy something cold. Do you want something?

Naoki : I'm OK. Thanks. I have already ⑧(have) a bottle of water. Mark, hurry up! We have only five minutes before our train leaves.

Mark : Wait a minute. OK, I'm ready now! Let's go!

Naoki : We were just in time!

Mark : I'm glad we got seats. Anyway, I'm more interested (B) Japanese culture than ever before. I'm very happy to be here in Japan, because I am learning about the differences (C) my country and Japan.

Naoki : I'm happy to hear that. I also want to go to your country someday. I hope I will be able to learn more about your country.

Mark : There are a lot of discoveries every day. I'll wait (D) you. Tell me when you come.

Naoki : Of course! I'm looking forward to it!
